

Figure 5. Aenictus cylindripetiolus (A, B, C holotype D, E, F, G paratype queen). A, F Head in full-face view B, G body in dorsal view C, D body in profile E tip of gaster (6th gastral tergite and pygidium).

width of gap between anterior clypeal margin and mandibles about 1.4 times as broad as maximum width of mandible. Promesonotum convex dorsally and sloping gradually to metanotal groove; mesopleuron relatively short, demarcated from metapleuron