

As I reached a similar conclusion under somewhat different circumstances and absolutely ignorant of Dr. Wheeler's inferences, I have deemed it advisable to publish this article in that it tends to confirm Dr. Wheeler's conclusions.

In the same article Wheeler also describes for the first time both the female and male of Eciton (A.) carolinensis.