

Acknowledgements

The specimens described here were provided by Dr. W. S. Creighton, whose kindness is gratefully acknowledged. Thanks are also due to Drs. G. C. Wheeler and Jeanette Wheeler for reading the manuscript of this paper and their advice in the preparation of the illustrations presented here. The author is also indebted to Dr. Paul B. Kownowski for his permission to use the facilities of the Department.

References

- Brown, W. L. 1953. Revisionary studies in the ant tribe Dacetini. Amer. Midl. Nat., 50: 1-137.
- Hung, A. C. F. and Brown, W. L. 1966. The structure of the gastric apex as a subfamily character of the Formicinae. Jour. N. Y. Ent. Soc. 74: 198-200.
- Smith, Fr. 1858. Catalogue of the hymenopterous insects collected at Sarawak, Borneo; Monut Ophir, Malaca; and at Singapore by A. R. Wallace. Jour. Proc. Linn. Soc. (Zool.) 2: 42-130.
- Wheeler, W. M. 1911. Three formicid names which have been overlooked. Science, N. S., 33: 858-860.

昭和四十二年三月二十四日印刷

編者兼
福岡
の
会

印刷者
間藤次郎

印刷所
秀巧社印刷株式会社