

Type locality.—Cacao, Trece Aguas in Alta Vera Paz, Guatemala, E. A. Schwarz and H. S. Barber. Described from 1 female and 6 workers which bear U. S. National Museum No. 13199. The author has examined the female and 2 workers. Wheeler (p. 265) states, "this ant is evidently a timid species, living in small concealed colonies like the species of Rogeria and Leptothorax."
