

Figure 1. Hypopomyrmex bombycii, type queen viewed from left side. Dark mass below queen is the curled type of Cataulacus planiceps. The view is essentially the same as portrayed by Emery (1891: pl. 1, fig. 10). Length of fore wing, 3.7 mm.